

Genevieve A. Bates

5828 S. University Ave., Chicago, IL 60637
U.S. Number: +1 773 844 5247
genbates@uchicago.edu

Research Interests: Political Violence, Post-Conflict Politics, International Law, Human Rights, Transitional Justice, Formal Theory

EDUCATION

- Current University of Chicago, Chicago, IL
PhD Student, Political Science
- 2017 University of Chicago, Chicago, IL
MA, Political Science
- 2012 Yale University, New Haven, CT
BA, Political Science

PUBLICATIONS

- Forthcoming in “Accountability by Numbers: A New Global Transitional Justice Dataset Perspectives on (1946-2016)” with Monika Nalepa and Ipek Cinar
Politics

WORKING PAPERS

- Preparing “Identifying the Causal Effect of Transitional Justice on Quality of Democratic Representation” with Milena Ang and Monika Nalepa
- Preparing “Guerrillas to Government: Rebel-Party Transitions and Electoral Success in Colombia” with Andres Uribe
- Preparing “Impunity to Share: The International Criminal Court, Elite Cooperation, and the Politics of Accountability”
- Preparing “After the War: The Role of Institutional Reform in Transitional Justice in El Salvador and Guatemala”

GRANTS AND AWARDS

- 2018 Center for Latin American Studies Mellon Dissertation Research Travel Fellowship
- Supports outstanding doctoral students in the Social Sciences who need to conduct 3-12 months of dissertation research or fieldwork in Latin America.
- 2018 Pearson Institute for the Study and Resolution of Global Conflicts Research and Innovation Fund Grant

Supports innovative, data-driven research that seeks to understand and reduce global conflict and ultimately demonstrate public policy impact.

2017 Pozen Center for Human Rights Research Grant

Supports pre-dissertation and dissertation research projects that make a significant contribution to the study and field of human rights.

PRESENTATIONS

2018 “Impunity to Share: The International Criminal Court, Elite Cooperation, and the Politics of Accountability” Comparative Politics Workshop at the University of Chicago

2018 “Purges and Truth Revelations Procedures 1946-2016: Introducing A Transitional Justice Dataset” Midwest Political Science Association Annual Conference

2018 “Impunity to Share: The International Criminal Court, Elite Cooperation, and the Politics of Accountability” Midwest Political Science Association Annual Conference

2017 “After the War: The Role of Institutional Reform in Transitional Justice in El Salvador and Guatemala” Midwest Political Science Association Annual Conference

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

2017 Human Rights and World Civilizations II
Teaching Intern

2017 Mathematics for Social Sciences
Teaching Assistant

2016 Introduction to Comparative Politics
Teaching Assistant

PROFESSIONAL APPOINTMENTS

2017 – Present University of Chicago
Research Assistant to Professor Monika Nalepa

Provide research assistance for NSF-funded project, collecting data on transitional justice policies, especially lustrations, purges, and truth commissions.

SERVICE

- 2018 Graduate Student Coordinator, Comparative Politics Workshop at the University of Chicago
- 2018 Co-Chair, Equity and Inclusion Committee, Political Science Students Association, University of Chicago
- 2018 Discussant, Program on International Politics, Economics, and Security Workshop at the University of Chicago
- 2016, 2017 Discussant, Comparative Politics Workshop at the University of Chicago

ADDITIONAL PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- 2013 – 2015 U.S. Department of Justice, Office of International Affairs
International Affairs Specialist, Washington, DC
- Researched and prepared country briefers for the U.S. Attorney General, Deputy Attorney General, and other senior Department of Justice officials for bilateral and multilateral meetings with foreign officials in the U.S. and abroad.
- Assisted in Department of Justice capacity-building efforts abroad by preparing presentations and by training foreign counterparts on international evidence gathering and legal reporting.
- Worked as part of a team preparing international extradition requests, and evaluated and executed international mutual legal assistance requests from countries in Central America and the Caribbean.
- 2012 – 2013 MoloLamken LLP
Legal Assistant, Washington, DC
- Researched prospective clients and prepared business development related materials in connection with prospective client pitches. Performed legal research as needed.